Welcome to the Online Chinese Test (Home Edition), Please read the following test regulations and implementation notes carefully before the test.

一、Test regulations

1. The test should be conducted in safe and enclosed room independently without any interferences. The room should be quiet and well-lighted. Places as parks, internet cafes, restaurants and the other open places are forbidden.

2. Computer/laptop, keyboard and mouse and other testing articles should be ON the table, and all prohibited items of examinations are not allowed in the testing room.

3. Other personnel are not allowed for entry during the test.

4. Any entry, exit nor walking around the room are forbidden after your entrance (after opening the online Chinese test system’s interface) till your exit from the test. Otherwise the test will considered as failure.

5. Any switching out of the online Chinese test system’s interface is forbidden after your entrance (after opening the online Chinese test system’s
6. Utilization of any unauthorized materials, including mobile devices, handwritten notes or textbooks are forbidden during the test.

7. Communications with any other personnel are forbidden during the test.

8. Remain in the center of your camera without any blocking and keep your camera on during the whole test, and make sure the shooting is clear and no choppy.

9. No hat, headscarf, headband, sunglasses, jewelry, tie clip nor other accessories are allowed in the test (Special religious needs please state and apply at your test registration).

10. All rules and regulations of "Measures for Disciplinary Violations in the Chinese Tests" are applied to Online Chinese Test (Home Edition). CTI and test centers maintain the right to pursue after the test.

二、Implementation Notes

1. Online Chinese Test (Home Edition) requires no manuscript notes. Paper, electronic equipment or any type of recording equipment are forbidden during the test.
2. Do NOT plug or debug the computer/laptop and other testing articles after the test begins. Testing broken or failures caused by candidate or equipment reasons are attribute to the candidate individual.

3. Timing is controlled by the Online Chinese Test system, and the remaining time will be on the screen.

4. The system will login to the test automatically 1 minute before the test. The content of listening options are available but not allowed for answer until the test begins.

5. Constructing sentences in writing pars of HSK3-5 can be completed by dragging and dropping the mouse. Please do NOT click too frequently to increase the loads of the server.

6. The system will enter the next part of the test automatically after current part finishes. You won’t be able to continue your answer if you click the button of “Submit” at the upper right corner of the interface for ending the test.

7. The system will submit the answers automatically after the whole test finishes.

8. To ensure the safety of the test, CTI or the third party test center may need to collect testing information from you, including name, photo, identification information and audio or video monitoring recordings during the test. All collecting and utilizations of these information will be limited within the law and legitimate business purposes of CTI (Testing safety maintaining for instance).